

Margaret charges the minimum wage. Sample costs are below. Please consult the outlets for specific charges.

- A LARGE SUSPENDED SCULPTURE typically costs between £1,500 for the more simple to £2,250 for the more complex pieces. The dragon is atypical. Installation costs are additional to this and are calculated on miles travelled and labour required. It is possible to collect and install the sculpture yourself. Full quote costs provided on application.

- A HARE standing at 20cm excluding ears typically takes seven hours to make. Smaller ones are completed slightly quicker. The retail prices reflect these costs. A hare retails between £25 and £120 depending on size, complexity and detail.

- A large PLATTER without sculpted features is constructed using slab building. The majority of the costs arise in materials and energy used and take a lot of kiln space. They retail from £35 for the most simple to £75 for detailed glazing/ artwork.
