The Drawing under the pots
upside down Hoes James Dolgellau
Some of this is really his pinning.

Beautiful work and imaginative
Very interesting collection.
The daffodil vase with the leaves round it is a lovely shape.
Wonderful work - Jennifer Shows incredible talent. Wozza
truly inspiring Beautiful and thought-provoking. I would have liked to see the green woman and tongue sculpture on the wall at face height, looking through the falling leaves. But perhaps that would change the meaning of it. Rhona H.
For A Girl - beautifully executed
woman like at on my wall
Interesting - Emer Read
Drawing very good
DARRIL
Wonderful local display -

An exhibition of talent! Well, certainly, expected display; a definite talent behind them it is easy near the possession of the exhibition. Good display to a degree with my work. And it'll be hard to see work well! Don't forget! Dolgellau 10.2.09

Wonderful work!
Tracy Kemp 20/3/09

Very inspiring work. So lifelike. I especially love the leaves and the work's texture.

you are really talented.
Rebecca 20/3/09

Enter Mr. Thomas, no Baccarat! One thinks he would have appreciated. As always! Dolgellau 20.3.09

Very impressive and imaginative
Fantastic! - Wendy x

Delighted to see your beautiful work -

It's lovely to look back at the comments people have made when visiting the exhibitions.

I think this was my first ever
local display in 2008.

I should look for the originals
for another at the library, one
at Snape and one at Cywain.
I don't know if there was one for Cardiff because that was going to be handled electronically.

De laur Maggie, lovely work!
Dobbia Ashton (Dyffryn Tal-y-bont)

- Beautiful work - even more skilled use of ceramic techniques.
Emily Dutton

Hi Maggie!

I told her about the Eagle and she was interested! She has gone back to Uni. now so I have taken a photo of it to show her.

Brilliant!
Sue Allie.

I liked the eagle best.
