

Hares

Margaret uses her detailed drawings, notes on skeleton, poses from humans, dogs, hares, rabbits and cats to create the hare's character.

She works from a blob of clay, forming and adjusting. She then leaves it to harden before hollowing and reforming, reviewing its textures.

Colours are added at various stages once the clays dry.

